

IMPORTANT DISCLOSURE

In any instance where distribution of this communication ("Communication") is subject to the rules of the U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("CFTC"), this communication constitutes an invitation to consider entering into a derivatives transaction under U.S. CFTC Regulations §§ 1.71 and 23.605, where applicable, but is not a binding offer to buy/sell any financial instrument.

Citi Private Bank personnel are not research analysts, and the information in this communication is not intended to constitute "research," as that term is defined by applicable regulations.

All views, opinions and estimates expressed in this communication (i) may change without notice, and (ii) may differ from those views, opinions and estimates held or expressed by Citigroup or other Citigroup personnel. Recipients of this communication should obtain advice based on their individual circumstances from their own tax, financial, legal and other advisors before making an investment decision, and only make such decisions on the basis of the investor's own objectives, experience and resources.

Citi Private Bank is a business of Citigroup Inc. ("Citigroup"), which provides its clients access to a broad array of products and services available through bank and non-bank affiliates of Citigroup. Not all products and services are provided by all affiliates or are available at all locations. In the US, investment products and services are provided by Citigroup Global Markets Inc. ("CGMI"), member FINRA and SIPC, and also Citi Private Advisory, LLC ("Citi Advisory"), member of FINRA and SIPC. CGMI accounts are carried by Pershing LLC, member FINRA, NYSE, SIPC. CGMI, Citi Advisory and Citibank, N.A are affiliated companies under the common control of Citigroup. Outside the U.S., investment products and services are provided by other Citigroup affiliates. Investment Management services (including portfolio management) are available through CGMI, Citi Advisory, Citibank, N.A. and other affiliated advisory businesses. These Citigroup affiliates, including Citi Advisory, will be compensated for the respective investment management, advisory, administrative, distribution and placement services they may provide.

Investments are subject to risks, including possible loss of the principal amount invested. Past performance is not indicative of future results, investments can go down as well as up. Investing in investments and/or treasury products denominated in non-local currency carries a risk of exchange rate fluctuations that may cause loss of principal when foreign currency is converted to the investor's home currency.

The value of an investment, when sold, may be worth more or less than its original cost. Investments mentioned in this document may not be suitable for all investors. Before making any investment, each investor must obtain the investment offering materials, which include a description of the risks, fees and expenses and the performance history, if any, which may be considered in connection with making an investment decision. Each investor should carefully view the risks associated with the investment and make a determination based upon the investor's own particular circumstances, that the investment is consistent with the investor's investment objective(s) and risk tolerance. No guarantee or representation is given that any product will achieve its investment objectives.

Neither the information nor any opinion expressed herein constitutes an offer or invitation to make an offer to buy or sell securities or other investments.

If you have any doubt about the suitability of an investment, you should contact Citi Private Bank for advice. Citi companies may compensate affiliates and their representatives for providing products and services to clients. In particular, in connection with the transactions and services contemplated by any agreement you may have, now or in the future, with a Citi company ("Citi Contracting Company"), an affiliate may provide product and sales services ("Services"), collectively with the services provided by the Citi Contracting Company, to you. Each affiliate provides such Services on its own behalf. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Citi companies (including any Citi Contracting Company and any such affiliate) have previously agreed to share revenue in respect of these transactions and services based on the respective contributions by such Citi companies, including the provision by such affiliate(s) of Services. Accordingly, a portion of the revenue received by the Citi Contracting Company from you under the transactions and services is allocable to such affiliate(s) and is received by the Citi Contracting Company on behalf of such affiliate(s). This disclosure does not reduce Citi's obligations to our clients. For a list of affiliates providing Services in specific countries, please see <https://www.citibank.com/icg/docs/Affiliates.pdf>.

At any time, Citi or its employees may have a position, subject to change, in any securities or instruments referred to, or provide services to the issuers of those securities or instruments. Investors should be aware that some funds or investments may be unregulated. Unregulated Collective Investment Schemes for the purposes of the UK's Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 can only be promoted in the UK to persons reasonably believed to be of the kind outlined in FCA's Conduct of Business Rules 4.12.1 R (4). Where applicable, an investment should only be made on the basis of the offering memoranda or similar. UK investors should note that some of the protections afforded by the UK regulatory system, including the Financial Services Compensation Scheme, are not available.

An investment in alternative investments can be highly illiquid, is speculative and not suitable for all investors. Investing in alternative investments is only intended for experienced and sophisticated investors who are willing to bear the high economic risks associated with such an investment. Investors should carefully review and consider potential risks before investing. Certain of these risks may include: loss of all or a substantial portion of the investment due to leveraging, short-selling, or other speculative practices; lack of liquidity in that there may be no secondary market for the fund and none is expected to develop; volatility of returns; restrictions on transferring interests in the relevant fund; potential lack of diversification and resulting higher risk due to concentration of trading authority when a single advisor is utilized; absence of information regarding valuations and pricing; complex tax structures and delays in tax reporting; less regulation and higher fees than mutual funds and advisor risk. Individual funds will have specific risks related to their investment programs that will vary from fund to fund.

Securities Based Lending: Borrowing against securities may not be suitable for everyone. If the value of the securities should decline below a minimum level, you may be subject to a collateral call without specific advance notice, requiring you to deposit additional cash or securities. If you cannot do so, all or a portion of your collateral could be liquidated, and a potentially taxable event could result. You are not entitled to choose which securities are sold or any extension of time to meet a collateral call. A concentrated portfolio holding a single or a few securities may be subject to greater risk of a collateral call than a diversified portfolio; a diversified portfolio will tend to be less subject to a sharp decline resulting from the negative performance of a single security. Availability, qualifications, and other restrictions may vary by state. Ask your Financial Advisor/Private Banker for details.

Foreign exchange: Please note that Citi acts as a counterparty to FX transactions. The currency market is extremely volatile and customers can be exposed to substantial currency risk. Additionally, SIPC protection doesn't extend to FX trading. Certain FX transactions may be subject to investor eligibility requirements. Foreign exchange may be traded on margin. The leverage created by trading on margin can work against you as well as for you, and losses can exceed your entire investment. Foreign Exchange transactions are not suitable for all investors and are intended for experienced and sophisticated investors.

Emerging Markets: There may be additional risk associated with international investing, including economic, political, monetary and/or legal factors, changing currency exchange rates, foreign taxes, and differences in financial and accounting standards. These risks may be magnified in emerging markets. International investing may not be for everyone.

Structured Notes: Structured products can be highly illiquid and are not suitable for all investors. Additional information can be found in the disclosure documents of the issuer for each respective structured product described herein. Investing in structured products is intended only for experienced and sophisticated investors who are willing and able to bear the high economic risks of such an investment. Investors should carefully review and consider potential risks before investing.

Bonds: Bonds are affected by a number of risks, including fluctuations in interest rates, credit risk and prepayment risk. In general, as prevailing interest rates rise, fixed income securities prices will fall. Bonds face credit risk if a decline in an issuer's credit rating, or creditworthiness, causes a bond's price to decline. High yield bonds are subject to additional risks such as increased risk of default and greater volatility because of the lower credit quality of the issues. Finally, bonds can be subject to prepayment risk. When interest rates fall, an issuer may choose to borrow money at a lower interest rate, while paying off its previously issued bonds. As a consequence, underlying bonds will lose the interest payments from the investment and will be forced to reinvest in a market where prevailing interest rates are lower than when the initial investment was made.

Art Advisory Services: The Citi Private Bank Art Advisory & Finance is a comprehensive fine art consulting service that provides collection administration, estate consultation, philanthropic planning, and art financing. Art loans are extended to qualified borrowers on a secured basis. All loans and lines are made by Citibank, N.A. or an affiliate, equal opportunity lenders, and are subject to Citibank's or such affiliate's qualifications, underwriting guidelines and credit approvals. Alternative assets such as art are speculative, may not be suitable for all clients, and are intended for those who are willing to bear high economic risks. The Citi Private Bank Art Advisory & Finance does not advise clients how to profit from the purchase of art or guarantee that a particular piece can be sold or otherwise used for a financial transaction for any amount including an amount equal to the purchase price.

The risk of loss in financing a transaction by deposit of collateral is significant. Citibank, N.A. ("Citi") will be your lender for this financing and you may sustain losses in excess of your cash and any other assets deposited as collateral with Citi or Citi's agent. Market conditions may make it impossible to execute contingent orders, such as "stop-loss" or "stop-limit" orders. You may be called upon at short notice to make additional margin deposits or interest payments. If the required margin deposits or interest payments are not made within the prescribed time, your collateral may be liquidated without your consent. Moreover, you will remain liable for any resulting deficit in your account and interest charged on your account. You should therefore carefully consider whether such a financing arrangement is suitable in light of your own financial position and investment objectives. You are not entitled to choose which securities or other assets in your account(s) are liquidated or sold to meet a margin call. The firm can increase its margin requirements at any time and is not required to provide you advance written notice. You are not entitled to an extension of time on a margin call. Citi has the right to demand repayment of a demand facility at any time, for any reason or no reason. All credit products are subject to credit approval.
